“ Micheal has always been nice to me, he was two years ahead of me when we were in school. He treated me like a sister, even before I dated his brother, Micheal looked out for me, I never had a brother. He stood up for me especially when we were in school. Micheal had a kind soul, a kind heart before life situation happened. Lets not look down on the man for how the world viewed him. If he ever gave you that Micheal smile or a kind word along the way let remember that. More over let remember him how God see him and all of us. Remember God’s word says “We all have sinned and come shirt of His glory.” But you see God forgave us all when He gave His son Jesus Christ so we can have a way back home to Him. Rest in peace Micheal “ My brother “. “Until we meet again” Linda Mobley & Family
