“ My deepest sympathy to the family, I remember Mikail when I use to visit the church that he was attending at that time. He would sit attentively listening to the choir, music & preaching. He would play drums on his thigh with his little fingers. Trulla I'm so sorry and praying for you. Love you

“ I've known Mikail since he was born. He was my lil cousin. It wasn't until he joined our church as a small boy that I would get to know him. He was so kind. A sweetheart. He would always make sure he connected with me and my boys. I always felt like he desired to say more to memory, like he wanted me to reach his spirit.. My father always said, be careful how you treat others because it might be that you're entertaining an angel. I was. Now, he has taken on wings and I hurt for his father (my cousin, Lee) for his sisters and brothers, his grandparents (Aubt Stella & Uncle John, and for his mom Trula. God plucked a beautiful flower. He knows how best to care for him. Trust him. I love you lil cousin. Sleep well tonight, I'll see you in the morning.

“ I had the pleasure of being one of Mikail’s eighth grade teachers in Pitt Co. Our paths would cross again years later at Tarboro High School. Mikail was a great young man. I remember seeing him at Dollar Tree, and he told me that he missed me and that he loved me. I’m so grateful that I had the opportunity to tell him that I missed him and that I loved him too. My deepest condolences go out to his mother and family. May God keep you and comfort you. RIP Mikail

“I remember the very first day that I met Mikail. We spoke in my office that day and really connected on so many levels. It was at that point that I realized just how much potential he had as a student, young man, and person in general. Just a week or so ago I saw him at his workplace, and had the best conversation with him. Our plans are not always the Lord's plan. We will miss this young man and he will forever be in our hearts. We love you Mikail.

“I remember the numerous conversations we held while he was in my homeroom. He had many goals and aspirations and was determined to reach every one of them. Our last conversation was in Dollar Tree in which he was just started and he was talking about how much he enjoyed working there. He had a positive energy :) He will truly be missed. RIP Mikail
