

Mr. Milton Andrews

July 13, 1948 - August 28, 2019

Mr. Milton Earl Andrews was born on July 13, 1948 to the late Jasper and Mae Lillie Andrews. He departed this life on Wednesday, August 28, 2019.

Milton attended East End High School in Robersonville, NC. He worked several years at Pinkleton Security and received several awards while employed with them. Milton attended Mt. Pleasant Holiness Church where he was always on his duty, taking care of the grounds, until his health failed.

Milton was known for his trouble shooting skills. There was no problem he couldn't solve; at that point he was affectionately called "Captain".

Milton leaves to cherish his fond memories, mother, Mae Lillie Andrews of the home; son, Eric Durham of Portsmouth, VA; grandchildren, Travon Massenburg, Eric Durham, Jr., Sean Durham and Jada Durham all of Portsmouth, VA; five great-grandchildren; his sisters, Edna Higgs of Bethel, NC, Lillie Williams of Bridgeport, CT; brother, John Andrews (Marion) of Robersonville, NC; aunt, Marie Walton of Bridgeport, CT; many, many nieces and nephews that he loved dearly and always talked to them about life and responsibilities; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Milton (Peter) was like a younger brother who I saw grow from a young boy to a strong responsible man. "Honor thy father and thy mother" was a center piece of his life after his faith in God. He was dedicated and a hard worker caring for his family and the house of worship, Mount Pleasant Holiness Church. He got along with everyone with laughter and a smile and was never shy to offer a word of wisdom. He will be greatly missed by not only family but by friends and the community in which he lived.

God knows best,
Len and family
