“Kruschev is the only name that I knew for a long time. We were neighbors on Tyson Street and my Aunt Louise Tucker and Deacon and Mother Little used to take us to church at Friendship in Falkland. We all used to have a good time playing on our little part of the street. My prayer is that Milton's family will be comforting by the Holy Spirit and the fond memories of times past. May the peace that passes all understanding be yours today, tomorrow and forever.

“ The Barretts were our first friends and schoolmates in Greenville dating back to 1967 in the Greenville Heights/Riverdale Neighborhood at Third Street Elementary School. We will always remember Milton, Carolyn, Will and Marsha! The Perrys (Ann, Jan & Nan) send our deepest sympathies to the Barrett, Rountree & Hines Families and pray that God's love will bring you comfort. "D.P." and his buddy Milton are together again!
