

Mr. Milton Harrington

October 29, 1950 - April 7, 2026

.Milton Bradley Harrington was born in Greenville, NC on October 29, 1950. He was one of 11 children of Marcellus and Mildred Harrington of Pitt County, NC. On the morning of Tuesday, April 7, 2026, he passed away peacefully.

Milton Harrington attended C.M. Epps High School graduating in 1967. He played Football and Baseball while attending school. He always loved spending time with family and enjoyed attending family gatherings. The highlight of his weekend would be Sunday dinners at his sister's house, Mae Belle Evans. He kept to himself but was outspoken about what he needed or wanted. He was certainly persistent and he would call around until he reached a family member who would assist. While walking in town he'd often stop and have conversations with different people he'd meet along the way. He was kind to all he met and he never met a stranger. Milton enjoyed soul food and other things like donuts, pizza and milkshakes.

Milton was preceded in death by his parents, Marcellus and Mildred Harrington; three sisters, Mae Belle Evans, Mildred Hughes and Lillie Claxton; four brothers, Johnny Harrington, Marcellus Harrington Jr., Arlester Harrington and Herbert Harrington.

Milton leaves to cherish his memories brothers, James Harrington (Mary), Bobby Harrington (Vardina); twin sister, Marian Dixon; a very special friend,

Shirley, whom he often visited during his daily outings and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

“ Mr. Milton was my neighbor at 901 Johns Hopkins Dr. here in Greenville. He always called me Little Lady. He kept everyone straight. I always tried to help him when he was in need. I am so sad to see him go, but he is now in the hands of Jesus. No more sadness and sickness Mr. Milton. You are now at home with the God you were always preaching about. My condolences to the Harrington family. May God comfort your hearts. Joanna Hamilton
