

Ms. Mone' Darcel O'Neal

December 15, 1959 - April 29, 2018

Mone' Darcel O'Neal was born December 15, 1959 in Newark, New Jersey to the late Vernell and the late Morris O'Neal, Sr. She was one of three children and graduated from Frank H. Morrell High School in Irvington, NJ. In 1978 Mone' married her high school sweetheart, Abron Parramore, and had two girls Teonja and Adriane while living in Irvington, NJ.

In March of 1982, Mone' decided to join the United States Army, setting out to be the best woman she could be for her daughters. Traveling to many states and countries, with two little ones on her hip, she was determined to pave the way. After serving her country for thirteen years she retired as a Sergeant, in May of 1995. Mone' has always been a strong independent hard working woman who instilled those values amongst many others and into her two daughters. The most noticeable attributes that shined from her was how much of a caring and loving person she was as well as a nurturing grandmother to all of her grandchildren. In addition to her love and devotion to her children and grandchildren, Mone' enjoyed many hobbies including: traveling the world, sightseeing, cooking and especially baking.

As her sun rose on December 15, 1959 and as her sunset on April 29, 2018, Mone' left to carry on her memory two daughters, Teonja Parramore of Smyrna, Tennessee, Adriane Blanks (Caldwell) of Concord, North Carolina; grandchildren, Allante' Scott, Zaheer Parramore, Zane' Parramore and Zubari Parramore all of Smyrna, Tennessee, Ladrina Douglas and Erica Blanks both of Concord, North Carolina; two brothers, Morris O'Neal, Jr. of Jersey City, New Jersey and Myron O'Neal of Tarboro, North Carolina; a host of cousins and special close friends.
