

Ms. Ollie Mae Moore Wilson

March 29, 1941 - April 4, 2021

Jesus rose on the 3rd day which was Resurrection Sunday. Jesus and Momma had a conversation; He brought joy into her heart and a smile on her face as He said, “welcome home my child”. So, on Sunday, April 4, 2021, Ollie Mae Moore Wilson went home to be with her Father.

Ms. Ollie Mae Moore Wilson was born on March 29, 1941 to the late Rev. Henry and Sarah Moore in Pitt County. She graduated from Bethel Union School, Bethel, NC. She was joined in holy matrimony to late Leroy Wilson, Sr. in 1963.

Ollie Mae was a homemaker and later became employed with Pitt County School as a bus driver. She was an Eastern Star of Stokes, NC and she was a member of Full Gospel Tabernacle Holiness Church, Bethel, NC.

Ollie Mae was an awesome and loving individual, a dynamic cook; especially known for her collards and her homemade chocolate cake that would melt in your mouth. An avid lover of flowers; loved to praise the Lord, she brought joy to all of those she met, and she never met a stranger. A straightforward person that told it like it was and demanded her respect.

Ollie was a true mother that loved her children, grandchildren, and her family. She was the neighborhood grandmother and would do anything for anyone.

Ollie was preceded in death by two sons, Leroy Wilson, Jr., and Alton

Ray Wilson; siblings, James Henry Moore, Evangelist Sarah M. Sullivan, Henrietta M. Smith, Rev. John Moore, and Rev. Robert Lee Moore; two sisters-in-law, Thelma Moore and Gloria Moore; one stepdaughter and three grandchildren.

Ollie leaves to cherish her memories, one daughter, Shakella Wilson (John) of Rocky Mount, NC; ten sons, Jimmy Wilson (Barbara) of Danbury, Connecticut, William Earl Wilson of Charlotte, NC, Arthur Wilson (Fannie) of Anniston, Alabama, Willie Moore of New Haven, Connecticut, Jerry Wilson (Lois) of Catskill, New York, Ervin Wilson (Beverly) of Greenville, NC, Julius Wilson, Sr. of Greenville, NC, Alvin Wilson (Theresa) of Raleigh, NC, Eric Brodie of Charlotte, NC, and James Boyd of Ayden, NC; special daughter in law, Minister Monica Baker Wilson; 41 grandchildren; 66 great-grandchildren; stepchildren, Sarah Thomas of Tarboro, NC, Sylvia Foreman (Derek) of Tarboro, NC, James Thomas (LaTanya) of Tarboro, NC, Jamie Thomas (Keisha) of Tarboro, NC; two sisters, Brenda M. Langley of New Haven, Connecticut and Maggie Hudson of Charlotte, NC; two brothers, Rev. Eddie H. Moore (Ann) of Philadelphia, Pa. and Rev. George Moore (Esther) of Riverdale, Georgia and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Grandma, I miss you! At this point, I am convinced heaven has the most amazing parts of me. You often visit me in my dreams. But, there is so much of you that lives inside of my Daddy. Talking to him feels like God healing parts of me I didn't know were broken.

I love you, Grandma!

“ Auntie, we will truly miss you! Your joy and happiness was always felt whenever we saw you or spoke to you on the phone. We could always feel the genuine love that you had for us. I will miss sharing recipes with you and laughing on the phone for hours. I promise to take good care of your “boyfriend” and my husband Larry. Rest in the loving arms of Jesus. We will see you in the rapture!

With all love,

“ I used to run into Ms Ollie Mae all the time at Piggly Wiggly. Even after years and years of last seeing her she always would greet me with a warm hug and had one of the most beautiful smiles you ever want to see. She always knew who I was as one of the baby girls. She will be missed greatly. Sorry for your loss Alvin and family. 😞

“ Sending prayers of comfort to my childhood family. Words cannot express the love Ma Ollie showed towards me. She was a jewel. She was my neighbor for years when she lived in Parmele and you could find me at her house almost daily eating her good home cooked meals. Jute, Alvin, Shakella, Ervin, and Jerry, you treated me as a sister and I am forever grateful. Ma Ollie treated me like I was her daughter and that made me feel so special. She will be dearly missed. Rest in Heaven Ma.
