

Ms. Patricia Williams Harrell

September 4, 1951 - March 2, 2023

Patricia “Tricia” Harrell was born on September 4, 1951 in Martin County to the late Gladys Williams and the late Hubert Brown. She departed this life on Thursday, March 2, 2023. Patricia was a 1969 graduate of E.J. Hayes High School in Williamston, NC. She went on to earn an Associate Degree in Cosmetology from Martin Technical Institute. Patricia served as a Development Aide for children with intellectual and developmental disabilities at Tideland Mental Health Center and Martin County Public Schools. She provided energy assistance as an Administrative Assistant at Martin County Community Action. Her hobbies were sewing, reading, and cooking. Patricia was an Elder at Manifestation Church of Holiness in Greenville, NC where she served as treasurer. She loved God with all her heart and dedicated her life to the Lord at an early age.

Patricia is survived by two sons, Teerance D. Williams of the home and Kevin J. Harrell of Durham, NC; three grandchildren, Sequoia Finney (Ayo), Canaesha Bazemore, and Sean Williams; one great grandchild, Justice Finney; three brothers, Frankie Williams, Richard Williams (Annie), and Albert L. Bell, all of Williamston, NC; three sisters, Yvette Little (Darnell), Patricia Brown (James), and Gloria Jean Bell, all of Williamston, NC; one aunt, Chainey Hagans of Hampton, VA; one uncle, Jerome Brown of Bridgeport, CT; and a sister-in-law, Vanessa Williams of Williamston, NC. Patricia Harrell was preceded in death by her parents and by one brother, Bobby “Mickey”

Williams. She leaves behind to cherish her memories, three godchildren, Melissa Armstrong, Shareek Atkins, and Kiersten Hudgins, and a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends. Patricia will be missed by many, remembered by family and friends, and loved by all.

“ To the Harrell Family: As a neighbor (live next door - 108), I met Ms Harrell after my mother and brother moved to Williamston in May 2018, although we initially didn't meet right away, I finally got an opportunity to meet face-to-face. One remembrance of her was the day my mother gave her some sweet potatoes that she received from a friend and Ms. Harrell made us several small individual pies - what a sweet gesture. I will always remember her smile and our brief conversations. Rest in peace. Annie Freeman
