“ To the family of Ms. Patricia Stanley Little,

Pat was my first college roommate at NC A&T State University.

Pat was a close friend of mine from the neighborhood high school. I admired her quiet, yet witty personality. I will cherish the fun times we had at high school and as roommates. I am praying that God will continue to give you comfort and strength now and in the coming days.

Too a wonderful sister inlaw. We were more like sisters. We go back years. We have had some wonderful times from NC to Va. I thank God you are not suffering anymore. We knew for sure our friendship was genuine. Always love you, I have lots of memories to share with your granddaughter when she is older. Thank God for you being in our family
