

Mrs. Patricia Outterbridge

February 10, 1955 - October 27, 2023

On Friday, October 27, 2023, God called Patricia Lee Parker Outterbridge to eternal rest. Patricia, affectionately called by some Cricket and Tricia, was born to the late Ben Edward Parker and Mable Daye Parker.

Early in her life, Patricia attended New Red Mountain Missionary Baptist Church. While residing in Greenville, NC, she attended York Memorial AME Zion Church. She was educated in the Durham and Person County Public Schools. She loved her family and while living in Durham, NC she and Judy Williams were not only first cousins, but best friends. Patricia was a joyful person with a fighting spirit of perseverance. Professionally Patricia was a caregiver, a CNA. She was known for her warm expression, “put something in my hand; put a little money in my hand.”

Patricia was united in Holy Matrimony to Anthony “Tony” Outterbridge and was a loving and devoted wife to him for 20 years.

Patricia was preceded in death by siblings, Ben Parker, Jr., Constance Parker Thomas, Carolyn Parker Cash who was a loving second mother, and her stepbrother, Steve Cates; by her mother and father-in-law, Warren B. and Mary E. Outterbridge, that lovingly embraced her as their daughter.

Patricia leaves to cherish her memories her beloved devoted and caring husband, Tony; her nurturing brother, Ed Travis Parker and wife (Lois); brothers-in-law, Clyde Cash, Jerry T. Thomas; sisters-in-law, Carolyn Johnson, Denise Kennedy (Anthony), Veronica Outterbridge Stokes (Randy); a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to Anthony (my classmate) and the rest of the family. I didn't have the opportunity to meet Patricia but I asked about her often when she was in the hospital and prayed for her. Anthony spoke of her with much admiration and was by her side through all she went through. I pray God peace and comfort to all that loved her.
