

Mr. Pearlie Lee Williams, Jr.

February 1, 1940 - May 17, 2018

Mr. Pearlie Lee Williams, Jr. was born on February 1, 1940 in Williamston, NC to the late Mattie Moore-Williams and the late Pearlie Williams, Sr. He departed this life on Thursday, May 17, 2018 at Ayden Court Rehabilitation and Nursing Center in Ayden, NC.

Mr. Williams graduated from EJ Hayes High School in Williamston, NC. After graduating he moved to New York and later joined the United States Army serving two years. He married Patty Williams before moving to Greenville, NC. To this union three children were born.

Mr. Williams was employed for twenty years in the sanitation department in Manhattan, NY. After he retired he moved back to Greenville, NC. Mr. Williams will be described as a “people person”. He was outgoing, loving, kind, and nothing less of amazing. If he had it he would not hesitate to offer anything to others and if didn’t have it, he would make a way. Mr. Williams saw the good in every person he met. He was a family orientated man, and LOVES to talk about any and everything.

Mr. Williams was preceded in death by one daughter, Denise Harris; one brother, Ernest Williams; one sister, Goldie Williams.

Mr. Williams leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Patty Williams of Greenville, NC; one son, Samuel Johnson of Brooklyn, NY; one daughter, Patricia Williams of Greenville, NC; ten grandchildren; nine great grandchildren; siblings, Jackie Ruffin of Sanford, CT, Delores Mebane (Donald) of Brooklyn, NY, Ronald Williams of Wyandanch, Long Island; one brother-in-law; special friends, Johnny Boo and Danny; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

In his life Pearlie was a loving father, husband, and grandfather.
