

Mr. Raymond Fagan

June 28, 1925 - May 17, 2017

After a lengthy illness Deacon Raymond Fagan entered peacefully into rest on May 17, 2017. Raymond was the only son of the late Simon Fagan and Lena Knight-Fagan. He was born and attended school in Williamston, NC before relocating to Brooklyn, NY where he worked and retired from Fisher Steen's Postal Services in Totowa, NJ. Raymond was ordained as a Deacon at St. Paul Church of Christ in Brooklyn, NY. Upon retiring from Fisher Steven's he moved back to Williamston where he worked for the Martin County School System. While in Williamston he united with St. John Church of Christ where he continued to serve as a Deacon. Raymond was outgoing, jovial and everybody's "Uncle Raymond". You could always count on him to put a smile on your face. Raymond was preceded in death by his wife of many years, Blanche Lyons Fagan; nine sisters, Carrie Maybell Brown, Idell Carroll, Fannie J. Moore, Virginia Clark, Donnie Ann Smith, Mary Rawls, Martha Fagan, Etta Hines, Janice Hampton. Raymond leaves to cherish his memory, a wife, Mary Jenkins Fagan of the home; children, William Louis Fagan (Gloria) of Greensboro, NC, Martha Fagan of Pocomoke, MD, Sandra Fagan of Parksley, VA, Beverly Bridges of Hollywood, FL, Charles Jones of Elizabeth, NJ, Valerie Robinson and Debra Price both of Greensboro, NC, Raymond Jones of Williamston, NC, Carla McCorkle of Greenville, SC; nineteen grandchildren; sister, Sadie Gertrude Brown Peele of Williamston, NC; a host of other beloved relatives and friend.

“ To my dear sweet Uncle Raymond, this right has really effected the whole family, we are truly going to miss you. Your laughter, smile, love you show towards your family, and the people you have meet along your journey of life. Your spiritual walk showed when you spoke, Prayed, & visited the sick . It's only one amazing Raymond Fagan, and you will be missed. Love always your sister Fannie Jane children.
