

Mrs. Reatha Lee Williams

May 9, 1945 - February 23, 2026

Reatha Lee Wilkins Williams was born on May 9, 1945 to James Columbus Wilkins and Mary Lee Wilkins in Bethel, NC. She departed this earthly life on Monday, February 23, 2026 surrounded by loving family.

Reatha attended the Pitt County schools. After high school she relocated to Danbury, Connecticut. She was employed with Amphenol Company for forty-five years and retired. Reatha decided to continue to work and started working at Walmart and served there for fifteen years as greeter. People came to love her for her kind pleasant spirit. She was well known for being the best greeter all over Danbury, CT. Reatha had a very outgoing and warm heart, as well as gentle, affectionate and simply lovely to be around.

Reatha was preceded in death by her beloved sons, Michael Williams, Anthony Williams; her sister, Hattie Mobley; her brothers, Jeffrey Wilkins and Gary Wilkins.

Reatha leaves to cherish her memories, her daughter, Nancy V. Wilkins of Winston Salem, NC; two sisters, Grace Wilkins of Oxon Hill, MD, Connie Harvard of Washington, DC; two brothers, William James Wilkins (Belinda), Dennis Wilkins (AnnaJean) all of Greenville, NC; a beloved and devoted sister-in-law, Mattie Elaine Wilkins; four grandchildren, Joy E Greene, Zoe M Smith both of Winston Salem, NC, Michael G. Williams "Little Mike", Dion T

Williams both of Danbury, CT; one great-grandchild, Kabsir Williams of Waterbury, CT; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
