

Mr. Reginal Hines

March 23, 1964 - January 30, 2022

Reginal “Reggie” Hines departed his earthly home peacefully surrounded by his loved ones on January 30, 2022.

Reginal was born on March 23, 1964 in Washington DC to the late Lissie T. Blount and Lee Edward Vines.

In 1982 Reggie graduated from JH Rose High school and furthered his education in Business Administration. He possessed a gift of gab that led him to succeed in managing retail stores and auto dealerships over the years.

After relocating to Virginia, he met and later married his wife, Dorothy. Reggie was a vivacious individual who loved to spend time with his family. He had a unique sense of humor and a laugh that was so loud it was like no other. Reggie’s mother use to tell him, “Boy, I can hear your mouth from down the block!” With the personality Reggie possessed, it was not uncommon to catch him singing and snapping his fingers for the love of music.

Reggie had a great passion for fishing and regardless of whether he was alone in the early morning hours or in the company of family and friends, he truly enjoyed this hobby. In addition, Reggie considered himself to be a grill master, a lover of all sports and was an avid Red Skins fan. One of Reggie’s most prideful moments is the day that he accepted his Lord and Savior along with joining the KCC Church family in 2020.

Reggie was proceeded in death by his eldest brother, Melvin C. Turnage in 2019.

Reggie will forever be in the hearts of his loving wife, Dorothy; daughters, Christina Alston of Norfolk, VA, Robyn Wolf of Atlanta, GA, and Afton Walker of Detroit, MI; sons, Donald Hudgins of Atlanta, GA, Donte Taylor of Norfolk, VA; sisters, Denise Hines of Greenville, NC, Tanisha Muhammad (Andre) of Chicago, IL, and Minnie Perez (Hector) of NYC; brothers, Demetrius Vines and Lee Edward Vines Jr. of NYC; 12 grandchildren, 8 great grandchildren; sisters-in law, Cynthia Turnage, Evelyn Sharpe (Marvin), Nellicile Royals; a host of nephews, nieces other family members and friends

“ Reggie was a stand up guy, very nice and a true Gentleman, we were the best of friends. Reggie would tell you when you were wrong and he would always compliment you, and tell you when you're right. Everyone Loved Regg, or " Hines", and he could really make you Laugh. When i went to the Hospital to see him sometime ago, i noticed that he had lost a lot of weight and could barely talk, i didn't say anything but he saw my facial expressions. Regg said Virg, had me that shaving kit on the table, so i did. I sat there wondering, then he pulled out a salt and pepper shakers, and he said im ready this time. He was talking about the food, but Regg also looked at me with That Big Smile and said Virg, Im Saved and God is in control. Regg im gonna miss you buddy, but like we talked about the best relationship we can have is with God, and i want say So Long, I will just say Goodnight, i will see you again in that great getting up Morning very soon, Love ya my Brother. Your Brother in Christ. Virgil Jones

To have known this champion here, U would had to also loved him. A true winner in every sense of the word. A wonderful person that I personally am grateful to have met and shared a few happy moments with. I know it's a very difficult time for friends & family, but my hat goes off to his wife & children. A bitter-sweetness, compiled of, both, happiness & sadness. RIP, Big Guy. U are in guddddd hands.
