“ Reginald Elliott was a great man, who not only served his country honorably in the US Marines, but has blessed many people immeasurably. I recall when I was President of the Eastern North Carolina Regional Association of Black Social Workers and Reggie was chairman of the Education Committee, he gave monetary donations and nonperishable goods to some needy families. Further, Reggie was extremely intelligent and could carry on conversations from numerous disciplines, political and otherwise. This gentleman, humanitarian, and man of God truly will be missed.
