“ I first met Bobby when the Bowen’s family moved to Hempstead, NY in the ‘70’s. We were both 11 years old at the time. Bobby and I have been special friends to each other for 47 years. His family became my family and my family became his.

Bobby was my protector. He always made sure I was alright. He was my Batman and I was his Batgirl.

No matter who his woman was at the time, he would let her know that I would always be “his baby.”

Bobby loved fishing and would put the worm on my hook for me. Back in the days, Bobby played a mean game of handball on the courts of Briely Park in Hempstead, NY and the handball courts of Hollis, Queens.

My beloved brother, Darrell, and Bobby would be unbeatable on those courts.

I remember Bobby came on the Hollis handball court wearing a suit jacket, shorts, tube socks and white dress shoes..he must of forgot his sneakers in Hempstead and he was coming from Grandma Woodburys house.

I told Bobby he could not play in those shoes and he said, “Watch me.”

He slipped and slides around that court in those pointy shoes, I laughed until I cried.

But you know what? ..Him and Darrell kicked butt!!

I have so many precious memories of him that time and distance could never take them away. We were partners in crime, together through thick and thin.

Even though my heart is torn to pieces, I know that my love for him will help it mend.

Lovingly submitted, Shernell “Tiny” Rich
