

Ms Robertha Manning

December 23, 1933 - September 20, 2013

Ms. Robertha Manning was born December 23, 1933 in Williamston, NC to the late George and Bettie Manning. She received her certificate for Culinary Arts from Martin Community College.

She worked a variety of jobs from Williamston to New York to care for her family. She raised her five children and a host of other children. She always believed it took a village to raise a child, all along while marching for our freedom. She devoted a lot of her time in a her later years to taking care of family and friends.

She was a member of Mt. Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church. She enjoyed ushering and singing in the church choir. She had a passion for baking her famous cakes and cooking her delicious meals. She shared this passion with everyone she knew.

Robertha Manning is survived by her five children, Abraham Manning (Polly) of Atlanta, GA, Corinthian Manning, Vanessa Manning, Dennis Manning, all of Williamston, NC, Alice Outlaw of Charlotte, NC; two sisters; two brothers; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, family and friends.
