“ Family, Romine was my classmate at SW Snowden School for many years. I also drove the school bus for that area during my senior year. Her family was one of the families that I picked up daily. After school we drifted apart, but I met up with her again when she was working at the nursing home in Chocowinity. She was one of the helpers who took care of my aunt. It was good seeing her again. She was always a very kind and kind-hearted person. I know she will be missed by those who knew and loved her. God bless you family. May he grant you peace, strength and comfort as you move forward.
