“ To Pastor Amos Wilson, Personal and church family;
This is the day that our Lord has made; in it, we will rejoice and be glad. Yes; even this day He has made. Knowing and embracing this eternal truth assures us of His limitless love, measureless grace and boundless power! His abiding truth also includes His plans that He has for our expected end. There are no surprises in God. Today is just as God planned and expected. That is why we are glad and are rejoicing. Our dear sister Rose is right where she belongs; in the everlasting arms of Jesus. In the place Jesus has prepared for her and everyone who has trusted Him for salvation. Our hearts can sing when we pause to remember heart aches here are but stepping stones along the trail that's always winding upwards this troubled world is not our final home. Until then our hearts will go on singing; until then with joy we'll carry-on; until the day our eyes behold the city until the day God calls us home. God bless you we are praying for you as you continue to be glad and rejoice even through the tears. It's all according to God's plan.

“ Mother Rose I love you ❤️ and know that you are safe in the arms of Jesus. You and I had so many memories together. You have always been a part of my life. God blessed me to have you as a wonderful godmother. You really did a great job reinforcing the teachings of true holiness which my parents taught us as children. You stood by the late Mother Henderson’s side and my father’s (Pastor Amos Wilson Sr. ) too. You came in PFC in the mid 1930’s and served in NYC under the late founders Bishop Emeritus Mother Rosa A. Horn, Bishop Jessie A. Horn, and Bishop Gladys A. Brandhagen. I will definitely miss you but you were tired and ready to rest from your labour. Go ahead my dear godmother and take your rest I love you ❤️ but Jesus love you best. You cannot crown him until I get there.

*Love,
Your godson
Jacob*
