

Mr. Samuel Richard Moore Jr.

October 4, 1981 - September 8, 2023

Samuel Richard Moore Jr. was born on Oct 4, 1981, at St. Mary's hospital in Brooklyn New York to Samuel Richard Moore Sr. and Debra Ann Jones. He was the third oldest of seven children.

Sam grew up in Brooklyn, NY and completed his education at Paul Robeson School for Business and Technology. Sam would say Basketball was his first girlfriend. He loved the game from childhood to adulthood and had the championships, trophies, and backaches to prove it, he just never got over 2nd place at Tompkins Park. If you know, then you know.

Being a person full of peace and filled with love, Sam had a heart of gold and was known as someone who would give all he had to help others and the shirt off his back. Working in security for over 25 years, Sam established himself in the field of Loss prevention. Earning respect and recognition as a mentor, trainer, and a partner to the national task force. He committed himself to his career and was recognized as an irreplaceable asset.

He loved to “shake a leg” with his cousins, aunts and uncles and always welcomed a good time. His large family was close-knit and instilled in him a “family first” mentality.

In 2010, Sam met his wife, Veronique and they were married in June of 2013. Entering their union with a son and two daughters, Sam and his wife blended their family of 8. In 2014, they relocated to Maryland, and then North Carolina in 2021.

Sam was happy with the small joys of playing video games and Monopoly, with his proudest accomplishments being his children or watching battle rap, basketball, and playing scrabble for days with the rib of his life, his wife. He was preceded in death by his grandparents (maternal) Calvin B. Jones Sr, Alberta Jones, (paternal) Alexander Moore, and Janie Moore; a sister Shaurice Jones; an aunt Judy Jones; uncles Calvin Jr and David Jones. Sam leaves to cherish his legacy, his wife, Veronique Parker; children, Kashanna, Terique, Keyanna, Chaise, Samuel III, and Carter; grandchild, Zy'mere; father and mother, Sam Moore, Jr and Debra Jones; sisters, Victoria, Sabrina, Ebony, Queenie, Samantha, and Tanisha along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, and nephews; his brother and best friend, William.

“ Sending my condolences to the family, Sending the family healing energy as they go through their time in mourning. I remember lil Sam standing in front of the building with a big smile waiting on us to pull up from long Island. I thought I was the best basketball player until I played with Sam. He was definitely on another level in ball. I'll always have my memories of cousin Sam. Rest easy King.
