

Ms. Sarah Lee Rodgers

March 27, 1959 - March 16, 2019

Sarah Lee Rodgers, aka "Boot" was born in Martin County on March 27, 1959 to James and Verna Rodgers. She departed this life on Saturday, March 16, 2019.

Sarah attended I.S. 55 in Brooklyn, NY where she studied cosmetology.

Sarah joined United Church of Holy Deliverance in 2011 and began to serve as an usher. She really enjoyed being an usher. Sarah would make sure that the church was always clean, and the members had plenty of peppermint candy, green tea and water. She believed in making everyone happy and putting herself last.

Sarah was the type of person that would open her door to help anyone. She would feed you and clothe you if needed. Sarah never passed judgement on anyone; she had a heart of gold.

Sarah was a single parent that raised six children by herself. This is what made her strong and the type of person that never gave up.

She planted in her children the meaning of love by expressing it through music and this is how she lived her life. Sarah also taught them how to take a little and make a lot out of it. She was simply a beautiful women that taught you how to forgive and how to never give up.

Sarah was preceded in death by her grandparents.

Sarah leaves to cherish her memories, her children, James Rodgers (LaShonda), Melvin Moore (Dawn), Jacqueline Bess (Tarves), Verna Rodgers (LaKeta), Jenisha Moore, Shy'Venia Bazemore; her parents, James and Verna Rodgers; siblings, Sammy "Sam" Rodgers, Janicue "Birdlegs" Rodgers, Angela "Lump" Rodgers, Jasper "Earl" Rodgers (Lisa), Frances "Mommie" Rodgers, Joanna "Joeboy" Rodgers (Ronnie), James "Smook" Rodgers (Denise), Monique "Foxy" Spruill (Levi), Shanicua "Mooka" Detres, Shantella "Tella" Spell; God-daughter, Shamecka Higgs; twenty grandchildren; special friend, Vernon Bland; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ with sadness in my heart for your loss. She was a joyful person. Especially when I hear her voice on the other in of the phone to get a ride. I would had to say to her now Sarah why are you bothering me. "She would reply to me but I love you Mrs, Annie." I say yeah right. I am going to miss her. Keep your head up family. God love her best
