

Mr. Shelbert Dillon Ore

November 30, 1953 - February 7, 2018

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain."

Revelation 21:4

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven...."

A Time to Be Born

Shelbert Dillon Ore, Jr., the son of the late Shelbert Ore, Sr. and Velma Marie Ore Williams was born November 30, 1953.

A Time to Grow

Shelbert, Jr. attended Beaufort County schools and graduated from Washington High School in the Class of 1971. He furthered his education at Shaw University where he received a B.A. Degree in Radio, Television, and Film.

A Time to Serve

Having an innovative mind, Shelbert, Jr. wanted to form his own inventing company and call it "People for Progress." His desire was to help mankind with the many ideas formulated in his mind. He loved being creative and coming up with new ideas. To help society, he did invent a special ice scraper and meat slicer. Being quiet and easy going, Shelbert, Jr. never engaged in troublesome matters. He worked in various occupations which included Singer Furniture Company, National Spinning Company, Hamilton Beach Company, and even tried his hand at photography and television.

A Time to Rejoice

His many hobbies included reading, writing, listening to music, and mail ordering. In addition, he loved collecting things and saved everything with hopes of one day creating a major invention.

A Time to Worship

Having grown up in a Christian environment, Shelbert, Jr. accepted the Lord as his personal Savior and was baptized at Cedar Hill Missionary Baptist Church in 1970.

A Time to Rest

Shelbert, Jr. transitioned from labor to reward at his home in Washington, NC, Wednesday, February 7, 2018. The scripture declares that there is "hope for a resurrection for those who are prepared." We are saddened to lose our loved one today, but we bid everything under the heaven," we can only accept his departure with the hope of being reunited with him again. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him and loved him.

A Time to Mourn

Shelbert Dillon Ore, Jr. leaves to cherish his memories, mother, Velma Marie Ore Williams of Washington, NC; stepfather, Joseph Williams of Williamston, NC; brother, Shelbert Gray Manning (Honora) of Jamesville, NC; step-brothers, Joseph McCoy Williams (Saundra) of Williamston, NC, Vincent Williams (Bernadine) of Fayetteville, NC; sister, Lola Barnes of Bridgeport, Connecticut; loyal niece, Joyce Manning Moore of Jamesville, NC; several nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Until we meet again, so long, our dear Shelbert, Jr.; we loved you when you was with us and we love you still.

Sorry to hear of Shelbert's passing. I spent many hours with him in the studio. He was always ultra-quiet. I believe he had a business card indicating: Shelbert Ore: Innovator.
