“ To the family of Shy'Quan my heart goes out to you Tina. I have been lost for words since I found out about the terrible loss you are experiencing. I pray for each day and ask God to give you strength and to help you get through this trying time. I consider you a dear friend and it breaks my heart to know your heart is broken. But I constantly try to remember Gods word for us when trying times are near. Lamentations 3:20-23 says I will never forget this awful time, as I grieve over my loss. Yet I still dare to hope when I remember this: The faithful love of the lord never ends! His mercies never cease. Great is His faithfulness; His mercies begin afresh each morning. I love you girl. “ To my great-nephew Shy’Quan... I just don’t understand why you aren’t here anymore. The last time I saw you was after your great grandma died. You’d just graduated from high school- you showed me pictures of your car. Though it was the first time in a long time since I’d seen you- YOUR SMILE was the same smile you had as a little boy. It melted my heart the same way. I thought we’d have time to get to know each other... I wish we had that time. I am sorry you’re gone.

To Tina, Q’s baby brother, Xian, and all who loved Q, I know that your hearts are broken. I am terribly sorry for this tremendous loss. There will always be a table setting, Christmas stocking, etc., little reminders of him- the young man who should still be with us. Use those as opportunities to remember the time that you did have with him- even though it was too brief. May your memories of him bring you comfort. Again, I’m so deeply sorry.
