“ I am deeply saddened at the passing of Susie, I grew up with her and were playmates during her time with her grandparents in Glendale. I fondly remember the times we spent together. I have not seen Susie in a few years. No one can prepare you for a loss; it comes like a swift wind. However, take comfort in knowing that she is now resting in the arms of our Lord and Savior. My heartfelt condolences goes out to Susie’s family. God bless you all. RIP dear friend, until we meet again. Chauncey Dixon

“ Deepest condolences to the family of Ms. Clemons. She was a very sweet lady with a wonderful spirit. From the sound of our meeting the day before her passing She had high hopes for those 6th grade students, and great plans for them throughout the remainder of the year. She truly was passionate in all that she did. I know the students at Ayden Middle will miss her dearly. I know my son does. I'm keeping all of you in my prayers.

Someone lost the bathroom key and you had to yelled to get everyone attention. :) Who would have known that was our last time together. Family is down here in pain cause you will be missed. But I am sure you is okay in the Heavens. I will hold on to that. RIP and my heart goes out to your Mom and family in North Carolina. Peace...*

“ To the family, I just want to express and say kind words that will help all of us to get through our loss. Susie, came into my life as a cheerful darling niece which I considered as the child I never had. Over the years, she and I shared a lot of heartfelt moments as well as good times. I considered myself in so many ways as her road model to follow as she did. She strived so hard to be the best person she could in her education as well as trying to instill others to follow her path as she had followed mine's. I think through all of this shocked, I will remember her as the one person who took up her cross and followed in the path of the person who helped to mode and direct her to follow life's highway to reach her height. Working toward her PhD surely was the task of her true ability and motivation in life. My dear and darling niece, this Uncle will surely miss you and each time I think of you, I will smile to know you made it to higher heights in life because you not only did it your way but; you did it with styles as was shown by me. God, rest your Angle Soul.
