

Mrs. Thelma Cooper Rascoe

March 1, 1953 - November 1, 2015

Thelma Mae Cooper Rascoe was born in Bertie County on March 1, 1953 to Thelma Cooper and the late Harvey Cooper, Sr. She transitioned from this earthly life on November 1, 2015.

Thelma received her education in the Bertie County School System. In 1979, she married Jerry Rascoe who preceded her in death. For several years, she was an employee at Perdue Farms, Lewiston, NC. She later was employed at Sara Lee Bakery, Tarboro, NC until the declining of her health.

Thelma was a happy go lucky person who never complained about anything and loved everyone. Her radiant smile and jovial laughter always made it a pleasure to be in her presence.

She was also preceded in death by two brothers, Harvey Cooper, Jr. and William Cooper.

Thelma leaves to cherish her memories a loving son whom she adored, Anthony Wayne Cooper; one granddaughter, Jeanquas Cooper; one great grandson, Zamari Cooper; mother, Thelma Cooper of Windsor, NC; three sisters; Mary Ward (Livingston) of Winton, NC, Dorethea Lee (Larry) of Aulander, NC, Dorothy Cooper of Williamston, NC; four brothers, David Cooper (Belinda) of Windsor, NC, Aro Cooper of Kenosha, Wisconsin, Eddie

Cooper (Cordelia) of Merry Hill, NC, Keith Cooper (Angela) of Greenville, NC, a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends and a special friend, Donell Norfleet.

“ To the family of Sis. Rascoe. She had a very quiet and humble spirit and was a beautiful person. I enjoyed sharing church membership with her. Whenever I would speak to her at church, she'd always respond, "hey baby." May God strengthen and keep you.
