

Ms. Vendetta Clemons

April 19, 1955 - December 9, 2016

Vendetta O'Neil Clemons was born on April 19, 1955 to Lemuel Clemons, Jr. and Joan Clemons Eaton in Wieboden, Germany. She peacefully entered into eternal rest on Friday, December 9, 2016 at her home with family at her side.

"Vendy" as she was affectionately called graduated from J. H. Rose High School. She went on to further her education at Winston Salem State University where she graduated in 1981, with a BS degree in Early Childhood Education. "Vendy" began her teaching career at Woodlawn Day Nursery in Baltimore, MD. Later "Vendy" moved back to North Carolina and started working with the Pitt County Schools System as a teacher assistant.

"Vendy" was an outpouring; kind hearted person that made everyone laughs. She had a green thumb and loved her plants and gardening. "Vendy" loved children, but most of all she adored her grandchildren and family.

"Vendy" leaves to cherish her fondest memories and to mourn her passing, a daughter, Kelli Clemons of Greenville, NC; grandchildren, Kamyia Morris, Junor Morris, Jr.; one brother, Rodney D. Clemons of Winterville, NC; two sisters, Colette Jackson of Greenville, NC, Dewanda Eaton of Bowie, MD; her one and only aunt, Queenie Carr of Baltimore, MD; three nephews, Rodney L. Clemons of Fayetteville, NC, Jaison Jackson and Ryan Clemons both of Greenville, NC; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Vendy and I worked together at Elmhurst Elementary..... she wore a smile was light hearted knew how to make you laugh. I remember hearing her say "I know that's right"
She loved spicy peanuts and sunflower seeds.
Kelli.... your Mom was a great friend and she genuinely cared about others ... I will be unable to attend her funeral ..... I am praying for you Kelli .... be strong....

“Vendy was a very special lady to me. I knew her from working at South Greenville school as well as Elmhurst. So genuine, kind and funny. She was always cheerful and happy. She spoke often about Kelly and her Mother, they were so important to her. She was a genuine and caring friend to have. Kelly, and family I know this is a great loss for you and I will cherish fond memories of her uplifting spirit. She always made me smile.

“ Vendi and I worked together at South Greenville Elementary School as assistants. She was a funny, kind-hearted, caring individual who did not know any strangers. She was always quick to lend a hand, an ear and a laugh! She loved her daughter and was a great mom. She made our workplace so much happier with her outgoing personality. God's blessings to her family and friends. She was a force of nature! My sincerest condolences.

“ Sweet Vendy. Nothing about you was phony. You were YOU! And we loved you dearly. Your smile, your eyes, the way you made us feel . . . happy. You loved your angel, Kelli and she was a little You. I am so glad that your Kelli gave you another Vendy and then some. I have such peace about you; know you are still with us, only free from pain; ever watching, until we meet again. God bless those who loved you; they have suffered such a loss. So thankful for the promise of Jesus.

“ I want to send my deepest sympathy to the family of Ms. Vendetta Clemons.
The bible tells us we can gain comfort from God, even during times of sorrow. We pray to our heavenly father for help to cope with the sorrow felt from the death of a loved one.
By prayer and supplication along with thanksgiving, let your petitions be made known to God; and the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:6
May you find comfort by relying on our heavenly father and learning more about the blessings of God's kingdom.
