

Ms. Vernestine Sherrod

December 20, 1936 - March 23, 2015

On Monday, March 23, 2015 The Lord called Vernestine “Tine” Sherrod home to be with Him. She was the youngest child of the late Alonzo and Frances House Sr.

“Tine” was born in Greenville, NC on December 20, 1936. She graduated from C.M. Eppes High School and furthered her education at Morgan State University in Maryland. She then continued her nursing career at Freedman’s Hospital which became Howard University Hospital.

“Tine” had a very simple life, she moved her mother back to Greenville, NC in 1991 when she retired from Howard University Hospital as a Registered Nurse.

“Tine” accepted Christ as her personal Savior while in her bedroom in Washington, DC many years ago. She always remained in good standing with her family church at York Memorial AME Zion.

Left to cherish her loving memories is her oldest sister, Doris S. Lee of Herndon, VA. Although she didn’t have any children of her own, she was the third parent to her nieces and nephews; Larry E. Williams (Carolyn) of Washington, DC, Lola F. Wanzer of Hallandale, FL, Debra J. Winston of Baltimore, MD, Shelby Bussey of Greenville, NC, Francis G. Winston Jr., of Sioux Falls, SD, Carol Ware (James) of Herndon, VA, Tammy Sherrod of Charlotte, NC, a host of great nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
