

Mrs. Vernetta Rodgers

September 11, 1943 - March 30, 2015

Vernetta Marie Rodgers, better known as “Manda”-“Mandy” the fourth child and only daughter of the late Ellen Nora James and the late George Thomas King, was born September 11, 1943 in Roper, NC. Later raised by her aunt, the late Terusha Little Reddick and the late William Little. “Manda” was called from labor to reward by our Heavenly Father on Monday, March 30, 2015 at Vidant Medical Center surrounded by her loving family.

"Manda" attended the Martin County Schools and furthered her education at Kittrell College.

"Manda" was joined in holy matrimony for fifty one years to Walter E. Rodgers. To this union there is a bountiful blessing of three children.

"Manda" had a favorite saying “How long, Not long”.

"Manda" is preceded in death by one brother, Leslie King; two sisters-in-law, Edward’s wife and Carolyn Little; two brothers-in-law.

"Manda" leaves to cherish her memories, her loving husband, Walter E. Rodgers; three children, Lennetta M. Griggs (Cornell) of Maryland, Tony M. Rodgers (Sekita) of Maryland, Juanita Lartman (Cornell) of Washington, DC;

one God-daughter, Sharron Calhoun; three brothers, William King (Francis) of Williamston, NC, Edward King of Charlotte, NC, Leroy Little of Williamston, NC; four sisters-in-law; three brother-in-law; nine grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.
