

Mrs. Virginia Dare Fleming-Ward

February 24, 1938 - February 25, 2013

Mother Virginia

To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven
Ecc 3:1

A Time to Be Born:

Mother Virginia Dare Fleming Ward known to many as "Gent" was born to the late Bishop Donnie and Lonia Little Fleming on February 24, 1938.

A Time to Learn:

"Gent" received her early education in the Pitt County area schools.

A Time to Love:

"Gent" met and fell hopelessly in love with the late Daniel Ray Ward and they were united in Holy Matrimony on February 9, 1958.

A Time to Serve:

"Gent" accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior at an early age and served him faithfully until her health failed. She was a member of Clemons Grove Pentecostal Church where she served as a mother, usher and sang in the senior choir. Two of her most favorite songs were: One Day... I am going where Jesus is and Put you time in "PayDay" is coming afterwhile. As her children were growing up she served as the neighborhood hair stylist, loved to cook and her home was the "hangout" for a lot of young people.

A Time to Die:

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his siants." Psalms 116:15

"Gent" went to sleep in Ayden, North Carolina and woke up in Glory on Monday, February 25, 2013 at 12:45 p.m. at the Ayden Court Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Ayden, NC.

"Gent" had 5 sisters, Lillie Bryant, Tessie Harrington, Annie Jenkins, Magnolia Rodgers and Lonia "Lee" O'neal and 5 brothers Lonnie "Buddy", Willie "Ray", Zack, Daniel and Joseph Fleming who preceded her in death.

A Time to Mourn:

"Gent" leaves to cherish her memory, 6 children: James Sutton (Evang. Mary Sutton), and Sylvia Purvis (Elder Dennis Purvis), of Greenville, NC, Faye Joyner (Bishop Ray Joyner), of Garner, NC, min. Carlene Wilcox (Alexander), of Charlotte, NC, Daniel Ward (Tasha) of the home, and Angela Roberson (Pastor Ernest Roberson) of Greenville, NC. She also leaves to cherish her memory 5 sisters, Hattie Whitley (Bishop Thomas Whitley), Evang. Elise Wilson (Walter Wilson), Dorothy Stevenson (Gene Stevenson) all of Baltimore, MD, Erma D. Crandol of Detroit, MI, Evang. Evelyn Mark of Greenville, NC and 1 brother, Samuel Fleming (Paulette Fleming) of Baltimore, MD. She also leaves to cherish her memory a very special sister-n-law, Etta Fleming, special daughter Diane Miles a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ *To the family of Mrs. Virginia Dare Fleming-Ward:
I would like to take the opportunity to send my condolences to you.
There will sadness because a part of you is gone, but we must remember that to joy will come in the morning. Just know that you will be able to see your loved one again in glory. To be absent from the body, is to be present with the Lord.*

*You slipped away before I realized you were gone. To the Ward family,
I didn't know, so sorry to hear about this. She was a kind loving mother.
She always welcome me into her home and always wanted to feed me.
I guess at that time, she was saying, this girl need some meat on her bones LOL. So to the family I love you and she will be greatly missed.
Love Emma Thompson and Family.*
