

Ms. Vivian Moore

March 29, 1954 - June 23, 2023

Vivian Moore was born on March 29, 1954 in Bethel, North Carolina to the late Earma Mea & Paul Junior Moore. On Friday, June 23, 2023 God saw fit to call Vivian home after several long years of battling with health issues. Vivian was the eighth of eleven children.

Vivian received her education in the North Carolina Public School System, graduating from Robersonville High School in Robersonville, NC. Upon graduating, Vivian moved to Washington, DC where she began her career as a night nurse at Washington Hospital Center. After several years, Vivian pivoted career paths and began working at Giant Food Corporation as a stock clerk. During this time, she would spend time with her grandchildren, go fishing, and travel the world. She had many friends all over and would even travel to Bermuda to see some of her closest friends. Soon after, she developed health concerns that resulted in the loss of sight in one eye and early retirement. In an effort to live comfortably, she returned back to North Carolina to be closer to her roots and siblings or as she liked to call it, she moved back home from city life.

Vivian was preceded in death by Jeanie Moore, John Moore, Earnest Moore, and Eamon Moore.

Vivian leaves to cherish her memories, one daughter, Cherita Moore-Gause

(Jerry); one son, Victor Ford; six grandchildren, Trateyonda Moore, Davonia Moore-Porter, Justice Gause, Xion Ford, Xavier Ford, Noah Ford; one great-granddaughter, Giavanni Moore; former husband, Nathiel Ford; longtime friend, Author Singleton, six siblings, Carolyn Atcherson, Delois Coates, Dorles Moore, Shirley Clark, Otis Moore, Marion Moore, and a host of nieces and nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins.
