

Mr. Wade Plater

April 20, 1960 - May 24, 2024

Wade A. Plater was born on April 20, 1960, in Greenville North Carolina to Velma R. Langley and the late Charles Plater. Wade departed this life on Friday, May 24, 2024.

Wade grew up in Greenville, NC, attending Saint Gabriel Catholic School until he was twelve. He then moved to Washington, D.C. with his mother, where he matured into a young man and decided to join the Army at the age of eighteen. He served in the Army from 1978 to 1984. After serving in the Army, Wade worked in planning and development in Washington D.C., where he was able to contribute to the development of the Gaylord National Resort in National Harbor, MD, which was one of his proudest achievements.

Wade leaves behind two sons, Wilton and Gregory Langley, who were his best friends. The bond he shared with them was incredibly special and will be cherished forever.

Wade was preceded in death by his grandparents, David and Susie Langley, his father Charles Plater, and his special uncle Wilton "Buddy" Langley.

Wade leaves behind his beloved mother, Velma R. Langley; his sons, Wilton Langley of Greenville, NC, and Gregory Langley of Washington, D.C.; seven grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends to cherish his memory.
