“ Family, I have known Wanda since we met after high school graduation. We were both young girls attending Pitt Technical Institute (Pitt Community College). We became fast friends and I would give her a ride to Ayden, NC. Wanda was very comical and mischievous. She was a tiny person with a big personality. Every now and then, I would meet her at various places around town. Family, lean on the Lord. He will give you that peace that humans cannot understand. Trust him, he knows why this loss happened. He will give you the strength to endure. Family, you are in my prayers.
