“ There are so many memories of Bro. Garner. He was a kind benevolent man with a heart of gold. He looked out for and cared for the senior ladies of our church. He was a gentleman through and through. My fondest memory is our time in Sunday School. He was one who rarely missed and loved to participate in our discussions. Truly, Bro. Garner will be missed by all who knew him. Diedre, Gary my prayers are with you and the rest of the family. May God's grace give you a peace beyond human understanding. He was proud of both of you. He left you a legacy that can be passed down through the generations.
