

Mr. Willie Horace Wilson

March 7, 1943 - May 20, 2024

Mr. Willie Horace Wilson was born on March 7, 1943, in Bibb, Georgia to the late Arthur Sr. and Minnie Kate Wilson. He was affectionately called “Horace” by all those who had the pleasure of knowing him.

Horace was reared in Bibb County, attending their public schools until graduating from Peter J Appling High School in 1962. As a young man, Horace relocated to the Bronx, New York where he worked as a renowned Construction Worker for Mack Trailer Construction and Laquila Construction for nearly 50 years. During this time, he met and married his wife, Cherry Lee Locke. He was praised in the construction industry and well respected in his craft. He had the pleasure of delivering “heavy machinery” to many iconic buildings, bridges, and landmarks in the New York City area. He also was recognized as a first responder for the tragic World Trade Center 9/11 tragedy. Upon retirement, Horace moved to Greenville, NC with his wife Cherry, where he lived the remaining days of his life doing what he loved most “HUNTING and FISHING.”

Horace was preceded in death by one brother, Arthur Wilson Jr; one grandson, Jonathan Risby.

Horace leaves to cherish his lovely, beautiful, devoted wife, Cherry Wilson of Greenville, NC; one loving son, Michael Wilson of Brooklyn, NY and wife, Mona Wilson of Toronto, CA; three beautiful daughters, Michelle Wilson of Brooklyn, NY, Melanie Wilson of Brooklyn, NY, Phyllis Wilson of Macon, GA; one brother, Robert Wilson of Macon, GA; one grandson, Hugh Robertson of Europe; one granddaughter, Tiffany Robertson of Macon, GA; two great-granddaughters, Tahiry Jala Howard of Macon, GA and JaMirah Risby of Macon, GA; one sister-in-law, Melba Wilson of Macon, GA; two God sisters, Gregoree Anne Simmons and Connie Thomas; a host of sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
